Footnotes

GLICKMAN broke through the gate prior to the start, didn't run off and was subsequently reloaded, proceeded to come out without apparent mishap when the field was sent off and running and went on take up a forward position, disputed the pace from the two path, with the pilot holding something back in reserve, went by a more energetically-handled STAR HARBOUR to take over in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, had the rider sit chilly for an additional quarter, emerged from the furlong grounds with his biggest advantage, held sway, driving. BLACK PEN sat within range of a pace fight from the outside, came home with good energy down the center of the strip to garner place honors. VEE'S ACCOLADE off the inside, displayed a mild kick en route for the show. IRISH LION took the inside route, angled three wide from the five-sixteenths pole, had no rally. STAR HARBOUR coaxed while arguing for control with a confidently ridden GLICKMAN, readily relinquished to that opponent despite called upon approaching the five-sixteenths pole and faltered. BROOKLYN COWBOY stumbled at the break, rushed up under hand encouragement, was grabbed hold after appearing to take an awkward step early down the backstretch, saved ground thereafter and faded.
