Footnotes

STORMY'S MAJESTY came outward on the first turn, patiently pursued the leader from the two path, was put to encouragement at the quarter pole, gained readily and proved best under a drive. PAPA'S NICE CAT three wide around the first turn, pressed the pace, fought his way to the lead by midstretch, tried to dig in but was outkicked. VITAL ARGUMENT set the pace towards the inside, weakened during the final furlong. FORTUNATE RUN rode the rail, angled outward but lacked the needed stretch response. THUNDER CHIEF failed to menace. MOST HAPPY FELLA had a three wide journey and tired. LORD JET chased three wide and folded. HARRIS DRIVE was never involved. HELVI stumbled at the start, raced four wide around the second turn and tired. KUGGERAND between rivals, faded after completing three-quarters.
