Footnotes

MEL'S GOLD pressed the pace, made a successful bid for the lead at the five-sixteenths pole, emerged from the furlong grounds with a clear advantage and held sway under a drive. GOOD KARMA stalked the leader from the two path, swung three wide and came home with good courage. PATENT PENDING TOM outrun during the opening stages, displayed a good late rally outside to grab the show. SIX FLINGS tracked the pacesetter from the inside, weakened during the final furlong. GARGANTUA set the pace towards the inside and gave way. MARSCAPONI failed to reach a contending position. GLOBEMASTER was through after a half. NO BLOVIATING was never involved. NOLITE TIMERE appeared to clip the back of NO BLOVIATING's heels during the run leading to the opening bend, causing him to stumble and unseat the rider in the process. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on this incident before the result was declared official.
