Footnotes

E HARNER, well placed inside early, made an outside bid on the turn, was turned back, came again in the drive, was turned back again, kept coming to prevail late. FOURTH TOP opened up early, had outside pressure on the turn, shook the winner twice before succumbing late. TOP THREAT stalked outside, finished evenly. ST. BLAINE'S QUILL, well placed outside, stalked a bid battle off the rail through the turn, tired in the drive. PRESSAC, wide on the backstretch, finished best of the rest. FIGHTER COMMAND, well placed between horses early, inside on the turn, lacked a rally. ROMAN DODGER showed little.
