Footnotes

KISSER N RUN sat reserved early, moved up along the backstretch and was four wide when launching his bid, quickly gained the advantage and was unchallenged to the wire. OPERA HEROINE raced near the front of the field for most way but was no match for the winner late while clearly second best. CORDILLERA (GB) traveled in good position but lacked the needed energy in the late going. BITTERSWEETHEART (GB) raced along the outside in the opening half mile, found himself between horses around the second turn when a rival moved up along the outside but lacked interest in the late stage. HIWASEE GEM set the pace for a mile, tired and was pulled up. SULLY'S APPROACH never menaced and was pulled up. FLYING FRISKIE was near the front on the first circuit, landed awkwardly on the eighth fence and was pulled up shortly thereafter and vanned off.
