Footnotes

L C CINDERELLA sat well reserved from off the inside in midpack, found room to angle out for clearance coming to the five-sixteenths and did so, was fanned four wide into the stretch, and had the rider release a good grip on the reins, made up ground during the ensuing furlong, rolled by the front runners with about a sixteenth to go and drew off with confidence, under a light hand ride. STOCK FUND was lightly bumped at the start, took up a forward position soon afterwards, contently stalked the leader for nearly three-quarters, picked up interest approaching the quarter pole, spun into the stretch and got called upon, finished with good energy down the lane to garner place honors. ORNELLIA grabbed the lead before leaving the elbow chute, tucked along the rail in time for the run around the bend, remained under rating tactics leading the field to the quarter pole, felt intensified pressure at that station and got let out, held on stubbornly making her way from upper to midstretch, unable to shake off the closest pursuers, yielded in deep stretch and had to settle for the show. PROUD DAME was kept under a firm hold from between rivals on the far turn, was put to encouragement turning for home, lacked the needed response. BUNHEAD took the inside route for nearly six furlongs, angled out and improved belatedly. SHE'S ALWAYS HOT raced three wide and had no rally. COZY APP puled off STOCK FUND, but not before rubbing shoulders, took the inside route, cut the corner into the lane and flattened out. SWIFT TAYLOR was taken off a rival at the start, advanced towards the front runners upon reaching the far turn, unleashed the final stage of her move in the four path from the midway point, came into upper stretch in a good striking position, but could not sustain the bid. CLEVER SPIRIT raced along the outside and was outrun. PRIVATE COUNCEL saved ground on the turn and faltered. GRUNGE GIRL fought against the bit proceeding towards the chute, was swung toward the middle of the course down the backstretch, raced three wide on the turn and tired. TINA'S NOTE under a good hold in the initial stages, stalked the pacesetter for six furlongs and folded.
