Footnotes

MOST HAPPY FELLA accompanied the pacesetter from the three path for nearly three-quarters, took over late on the turn and led the field into the stretch in possession of a slim advantage but with three rivals in hot pursuit, edged away down the lane under a drive. ISCAR stalked the front runners from near the inside, looped around a tiring rival coming to the quarter pole, got taken back closer to the rail once successfully by, loomed a serious threat arriving at the eighth pole latched on to the winner, but could make up no additional ground. ELTHEEB rode the rail for a furlong starting from the seven-sixteenths pole, was angled outward for the stretch drive, settling into the four path by upper stretch, flashed some late foot en route for the show. SUN DANCE MOON raced three wide, reached a good striking striking position at the quarter pole but soon flattened out. SASTRE raced along the outside and was outrun. STAR DANCE M D showed the way from the two path, pressed by the top one beginning at the half mile pole, fell back steadily leaving the five-sixteenths pole despite being under a drive at the time. MOONHANGER off the inside, was under some encouragement giving chase on the backstretch, raced most of the way on the bend under a drive, got eased entering the stretch and stopped to a walk.
