Footnotes

I GOT ID assumed a forward position after the start, was tucked along the rail upon reaching the backstretch, vied to maintain command with MOBRIDGE applying some pressure to the outside, continued along the same scenario all the way to the top of the lane, got set down and edged away, was comfortably in the clear when swerving out sharply to the right a few jumps before reaching the wire. TAPITATION was sent over to the inside before reaching the end of the opening bend, put on quite a show, rankly fighting with severe force on the bit as well climbing, in defiance to the rider's attempt to rate, until the end of backstretch, settled down noticeably on the second bend, although still pulling on the bit, entered the stretch and was turned loose, gained ground readily, was eased off the inside route coming to the eighth pole, continued onward with good courage en route for the place. ELROI got off a sluggish beginning, underwent a ground-saving journey, drafted behind the runner up cutting the corner into the stretch, mustered up a kick good enough to take the show. MOBRIDGE disputed the pace from the two path, weakened in the final furlong. TRAININGFORSUCCESS three to four wide around both turns, lacked the needed stretch response. BALDERDASH saved ground to the quarter pole, faltered after getting angled outward entering the stretch. CHARITY REINS got checked after the start, chased the front runners towards the two path, had no rally. CAMPOGIOVANNI three wide on the opening turn, was strung out one path wider on the subsequent one, made no impact. MISTER DOOLEY in the three path entering the far turn, was six wide exiting it, had no offering. IRISH JADE four wide departing the backstretch, was outrun.
