FOX RULES got away alertly, quickly established control and tucked over to the rail before leaving the homestretch, rated kindly with KING KREESA tagging along directly in the two path, himself being lightly coaxed while doing so, had the rider sit chilly in the saddle as the previously mentioned opponent ranged up to be on even terms at the midway point on the far turn, stayed on hold vying head to head until the quarter pole, got turned loose at that station, emerged from the furlong grounds still holding a clear advantage, but with three others looming threats for the final furlong, dug in with good determination to stave them all off. KING KREESA pulled hard on the bit in the early stages before settling down in time for the run around the first turn, prompted the winner kindly from the outside, lightly coaxed to maintain interest, moved up to increase the pressure leaving the half mile pole, raced head to head until upper stretch, got shaken off but held on well enough long enough to preserve the place. UNBRIDLED COMMAND tracked the front runners from a slight distance off the rail, was urged along to keep pace departing the backstretch, paused in hand for a couple of jumps late on the far turn, then was put back to urging, spun three wide into the stretch, lacked the necessary response. AMPERSAND saved ground throughout, launched a rail run from upper to midstretch before flattening out. MR. VANTASTIC took the inside route, had no rally. STEPHEN'S REVENGE left the rail at the half mile pole, was no factor. DOUBLESPEAK three to four wide on the second turn, folded. CIENTIFICO raced along the outside and tired. CHARDSEY off the inside, got put to encouragement in the vicinity of the half mile pole, came up empty. STAGE DEBUT a forward factor three wide around both turns, was through after completing six furlongs.
