Footnotes

WINTER MEMORIES away in good order, settled into midpack, remained unhurried from off the inside making her way down the backstretch, was let out a notch and cut the gap in half with a few powerful strides, was taken in hand then let out a notch for the second time midway on the far turn, narrowed in a bit more, paused leaving the five-sixteenths pole and turned for home in hand again, rubbed shoulders with CHECK THE LABEL and nudged her way into the three path at the commencement of the stretch drive, got called upon for run soon afterwards and responded with eagerness, roared by the front runners to take charge in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, kicked comfortably clear, then was successfully geared down for the final seventy yards. GITCHEE GOOMIE forwardly placed, underwent a three wide journey, made a bid for command prior to the quarter pole, fought her way to the front by midstretch, held on for a few strides until overtaken by the winner, reached the wire in time to preserve the place. PRINCIPAL ROLE tucked along the rail shortly after departing the starting gate, offered some resistance on the bit, but otherwise proved ratable, contently tracked the front runners for nearly three-quarters, picked up interest late on the second turn and cut the corner into the stretch, continued to close in, altered course outward several paths with about a sixteenth remaining, found her best stride at that juncture, missed out on place honors. FEDERATION (GB) quickly took control, was under a snug hold before reaching the end of the elbow chute, set the opening splits facing mild resistance, had the pressure increase dramatically on the far turn and was let out in response before reaching the quarter pole, held her ground stubbornly until midstretch before weakening. CHECK THE LABEL reserved for over six furlongs, swung four wide into upper stretch, lacked the necessary response. HESSONITE was rated while stalking the leader from the two path for nearly three-quarters, gave way after entering the stretch.
