Footnotes

CENTRINA chased from afar down the backstretch, closed in on the runaway leader along with the rest of field upon reaching the far turn, was roused turning for home, split rivals just prior to poking a head in front at the eighth pole, then edged away, driving. BOBS PINUP GIRL raced off the inside, remained under a good good until the quarter pole, was placed into the four path before commencing to rally in earnest, kicked in with good energy down the lane to grab place honors. CRAZY CATLADY brought up the back of the pack for three-quarters, came home belatedly to take the show. STARSILHOUETTE underwent a three wide journey and got outfinished. MESA GIRL saved ground and improved position with a mild stretch response. ELENI'S HOPE sped off from the competition soon after the start, settled along the inside early down the backstretch, had the rider remain chilly in the saddle as the field closed in departing the backstretch, was barely a head still on top when finally given her cue at the quarter pole, re established control during the early portion of the run through the furlong grounds, wasn't unable to resist the top one, yielded readily midstretch and steadily weakened thereafter. SEVEN IN A ROW tracked the leader taking the inside route, was in the vanguard as the competition advanced towards the pacesetter around the far turn, availed of open space to take position and be two wide nearing the five-sixteenths pole, took a run at ELENI'S HOPE soon afterwards, kept up the pressure for another furlong before backing away.
