Footnotes

BEAT OF THE DRUM latched on to SAYAPRAYERFORME nearing the half mile pole, closed in steadily and took over after going halfway around the bend, needed little encouragement from the pilot while doing so, went on a little further then was set down for the stretch, built up his biggest advantage with about a furlong remaining and stayed comfortably in the clear to the end. DISCREET CODE was sluggish in the initial stages, saved ground on the turn, felt the whip from the right side at the three-eighths pole, didn't pick up the pace until a sixteenth farther down the road, spun four wide into the stretch, gained ground readily, drifted inward all the while making his way through the furlong grounds to be two wide with about an eighth to go, continued onward in a willing manner en route for the place. PURPLE PICO three wide at the top of the turn, came one path wider into the stretch, weakened in the final furlong. SPIN CHIEF got away a beat slowly, was slow to settle into stride, was basically under a gallop turning for home four wide, displayed good interest proceeding his way towards the wire while never being fully extended. BROADWAY HAT chased the front runners on the turn, was already under encouragement by the five-sixteenths marker, remained a forward factor to midstretch then backed away. SUNRISE LOVER raced along the outside and was outrun. SAY LANCELOT was sent over to the inside route at the half mile pole, rode it for nearly the next quarter, was put to right handed stick work angling outward to steer by the tiring former pacesetter at the bottom of the bend, tired. WINNING GOLD between rivals and under a drive by the three-eighths, tired. SAYAPRAYERFORME was roused from the starting gate to secure the early advantage, had the eventual winner draw up before reaching the end of the backstretch, showed the way from the inside for considerably less than a half, was displaced and faltered.
