Footnotes

BOMBAGUIA tracked the front along the inside in the two path from close range, was among a threesome vying for the front at the quarter pole, was put to a drive, dug in fighting on while still behind by a slight margin at the eighth pole, seized command with a sixteenth to go, held the advantage under a drive to the wire to prevail in a good effort. MIDNITE SILVER reserved off the pace, ranged up four wide to engage the front at the five-sixteenths pole, turned for home under encouragement, displaced the leader at the three-sixteenths, held a slight lead with a furlong remaining, fought on all out yielding the front with a sixteenth to go, held the place from equally determined rivals continuing on to the wire with good kick. SO SCOTT unhurried early on in the two path, came under light hand urging to close the margin on the front from the three-eighths pole, steadily progressed on the front to loom in behind the three combatants with a furlong to go, kicked on in the late stages to just procure the show honors in the last jump. WRITINGONTHEWALL forwardly placed from the get go, dictated his own pace from off the inside comfortable and in hand, continued three wide through the turn, was confronted in earnest by a pair, got put to a drive in response now between rivals heading for the top of the lane, yielded the front at the three-sixteenths, battled on through the lane holding well while being outfinished late for show honors. VEILED PROPHET pushed along from the three-eighths pole, saved ground throughout to no avail, offering up no serious bid. TOM CAT ALLIE allowed to settle chasing the widest of all, raced five wide through the turn, lost ground as a result, was outrun thereafter, put to a protective hold while galloping the rest of the way.
