Footnotes

THE PRIZE FIGHTER quickly grabbed the lead, took up residence in the two path, was forced to argue for command from there with another pair from the top of the turn until the sixteenth pole, regained the front leaving the furlong grounds, then dug in willingly to stave off the runner up. JETER unhurried down the backstretch, moved in tandem with HALF NELSON to confront the winner leaving the half mile pole, was placed in the four path while disputing the pace as the widest of the threesome, fell back slightly after turning for home, continued onward, closed in late on the top one but came up short. HALF NELSON contested the pace from between rivals from the nine-sixteenths pole until deep stretch, desperately clinging to a narrow advantage for much of the struggle, yielded to the top one, eventually weakening into the show slot. MASTER SPLASH was no factor. AMBASSADOR BRIDGE raced three wide on the turn and folded. ONE SPEEDY CAT mustered up only brief foot off a ground-saving journey.
