Footnotes

PRECARIOUS got off to a quick beginning, was rated along while stalking the pacesetter, began to increase her presence coming to the end of the backstretch, spun into the lane alongside PLACENTIA and made up the remaining deficit about a sixteenth down the road, left the three-sixteenths pole for the initial time being asked for run, stayed in the clear the rest of the way under good handling. ARRIBA ANNA off the inside, was put to encouragement leaving the half mile pole, came three wide into the stretch and finished with good energy to procure the place. NEOLEXIA saved ground until midway on the far turn, responded positively when given her cue approaching the five-sixteenths pole closing readily into the gap, was placed four wide at the head of the stretch, showed good energy en route for the show. CELTIC ARCH rode the rail to upper stretch, attempted to rally from between opponents from midstretch to the sixteenth pole, flattened out. BRAMLEY was already under encouragement turning for home four wide, lacked the necessary response. TREQQER tracked the front runners from the inside, was no factor. PLACENTIA got away alertly, established command and was guided over onto the inside route before reaching the end of the homestretch, rated kindly while showing the way, shadowed by, but without making her presence felt in a substantial way, the eventual winner during the opening stages, had that foe latch during the run around the far turn, entered the stretch still slightly in front and was called upon, surrendered by the three-sixteenths marker and faltered. THOUSANDFOLD three wide on the opening bend, was closer to the rail on the subsequent one, failed to reach a contending position. KIMBOLTON was no menace.
