Footnotes

HEIR TO DARE broke alertly and was guided over to the rail, argued for control, was set down to a hard drive entering the stretch and rapidly extended the margin, remained under strong handling until the sixteenth pole before getting geared down with little doubt remaining as to the outcome. EMMA'S ENCORE sat a loose pocket while tracking the disputed pace, remained on hold, bidding time from the five-sixteenths marker until the quarter pole, had sufficient clearance as her stretch run commenced and was angled outward, proved no match for the winner, yet was still second best. STREET MATE got outhustled leaving the starting gate, brought up the back of the pack for the opening half and for a bit beyond, came into the stretch four wide, the widest of all, was taken hold after lugging inward in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, went on to best the rest. NAUGHTY OR NICE fought against the bit while proceeding her way down the backstretch, disputed the pace from the outside for the initial half, got shaken off leaving the midway point on the turn and tired. MARVELOUS MARGARET off a beat slowly, was lightly hand urged to secure a forward post, underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, folded.
