Footnotes

DIGGER dueled early slightly off the rail, shook loose in upper stretch and held off the runner-up under steady right hand urging. CALLMETONY settled just off the pace while four wide for a half then closed late from outside but couldn't threaten the winner. WEST COAST FLIER checked and altered course to the outside at the half mile pole, pressed the pace to the top of the stretch and weakened in midstretch. MORE THAN A REASON was outrun early, rallied along the rail to reach contention in upper stretch and flattened out. UNBRIDLED DANGER chased between horses three wide to the turn and gave way.
