Footnotes

LAST MINUTE ROSE became skittish reacting to the pandemonium going on a few stalls to her left, got away alertly once the field was sent off and running and quickly established control, sailed along uncontested from along the inside, edged away from more energetically handled competition late on the turn, was asked for some run for the initial time at the three-sixteenths pole, left the eighth pole beginning to shorten stride, held on safely to the end. SIBERIAN WILDCAT put to a prolonged drive, split rivals at the seven-sixteenths pole initiating a march into contention, gained readily on the winner in the final furlong but came up short. FLY CAT spun four wide into the stretch under a frantic drive and rallied mildly for the show. PIQUE OUT required more than customary effort to get loaded into the gate for the first time, reared up after MAJESTIC TWELVE broke open her stall's gate, causing the rider to bail out, was backed out, examined by the veterinarian and re loaded, again needing a little extra effort, proceeded to come out with no major incident, took the inside route, cut the corner into the lane and held on for the last major check. DEM AAH WATCH MEH raced three to four wide under encouragement on the turn, folded. THREE ZIPS saved ground and faltered. KARAKORUM ROYALE hustled to reach midpack, saved ground and steadily faded. MISS BRASS BONANZA stalked briefly and tired. MAJESTIC TWELVE broke open the gate, raced from well off the inside, dropped far back before reaching the quarter pole, and was eventually eased.
