Footnotes

LIFE'S MEASURE was lightly urged along stalking the pacesetter three wide around the turn, bid in earnest approaching the quarter pole, drew abreast of the runner up with about a sixteenth to go, took over and edged away, under steady hand encouragement to the end. RISK A CHANCE established control soon after the start, cut the pace on a loosely-contested lead from the two path, remained untested for nearly three-quarters, was let out once the top one made her bid, yielded at the sixteenth pole but was clearly best of the others. GO UNBRIDLED slow to settle, made a four wide sweep around the turn to reach contention, but proved no match for the top twosome after turning for home. D' ORATORY unhurried along the outside ducked inward at the quarter pole, steadied twice during the run through the furlong grounds, stuck behind a tiring rival, gained some racing room for the final furlong and rallied mildly to secure the last major slice of the pot. JACKIE MO under a snug hold down the backstretch, took the overland route for most of the way around the turn and tired. POPPY DAY four wide departing the backstretch, folded. LEMON PUNCH had a ground-saving journey, was asked for run from the half mile pole and faded.
