QUEEN'S HARBOR established control soon after the start, was rated in the two path on a loosely-contested lead, continued along on the same scenario until upper stretch, was put to a brisk hand ride and scurried off, held sway, despite drifting outward steadily during the final furlong. LE MI GEAUX chased from the outside and proved no match. SPEEDY'S GAL bobbed at the start, saved ground until the quarter pole and was up in time for the show. CELTIC CHANT accompanied the winner from the three path for three-quarters and tired. ROSE'S TURN raced three wide around the turn, folded.
