Footnotes

SAINTS ALIVE stumbled badly at the start, recovered and was urged towards the front, went head with head with the runner up soon afterwards, positioned along the rail, continued to do so down the backstretch and around the turn, with neither rival willing to concede the other the lead, was asked for a response after turning for home, with UNBRIDLED DANGER still glued directly to the outside, edged clear from that pesky opponent during the ensuing furlong, then dug in with good determination and under good handling to stave a trio of closers and preserve the decision. UNBRIDLED DANGER broke alertly, sparred intensely with the winner, from the two path, and with the rider applying a strong grip on the reins, continued along on the same scenario for nearly a half, lost contact with the actively-handled top one in upper stretch, contrasting her riding tactics by remaining chilly in the saddle, staged a comeback departing the furlong grounds, gaining ground readily, despite basically unasked, was let out belatedly in the final seventy yards and missed. FORTY PRAYERS unhurried off the inside, picked up the pace gearing up for the stretch drive, swung five wide under hand encouragement into the lane and took off with a good kick down the center of the strip to grab the show. DIXIE NITE OUT tracked the duelers while racing along the inside, launched a rail rally after entering the stretch but wasn't good enough. MEL'S GOLD underwent a three pursuit and had no kick. JELLO SHOT along the outside, stalked the duelers and came up empty in the lane. MIND BOGGLING failed to menace. BRENDAN'S WARRIOR offered little.
