Footnotes

WOLFSON raced in good position along the rail, waited for room on the turn, swung three wide to get clear at the quarter pole then closed steadily while drifting out to get up in the final strides. TODD GOT EVEN set the pace along the rail into deep stretch and yielded grudgingly. DROWNING BEAR pressed the pace in the two path, made a run to challenge inside the furlong marker and was outfinished late. EL TAJIN stalked the leaders from outside, drifted five wide at the quarter pole and steadily tired thereafter. DISTANT POINT broke a bit slowly and trailed throughout.
