Footnotes

ROYAL SIGHTING sat reserved in midpack from off the inside for the opening half, picked up interest soon after reaching the far turn, angled outward leaving midpoint, securing the four path prior to the five-sixteenths pole, got asked for run spinning into the stretch, closed in readily on the front runners during the ensuing furlong, was the first to strike the eighth pole, edged away under good handling. SILENT JOY tracked the pacesetter while sitting a loose pocket trip, mildly coaxed to maintain interest, began to pick up the pace a bit gearing up for the stretch run after going six furlongs, was one stride into the stretch drive before angling outward, came home with good energy to garner the place. SOME LEGEND hesitated at the start, was given several hard shots in rapid succession right handed on the shoulder as motivation to get going, began to advance down the backstretch from the three path, got carried out several lanes wider by LILLEHAMMER at about the midway point, was taken hold and retucked back into the three path for the run around the second turn, got let out a notch nearing the five-sixteenths pole and responded positively to the cue, entered the stretch four wide but was tipped slightly wider shortly afterwards for clearer sailing, charged down the center of the course en route for the show. LUCK IN THE CITY rode the rail until the five-sixteenths pole, entered the stretch two wide, altered course to be outside the front runners soon afterwards, got out finished. TRULY DEVOTED underwent a three journey forwardly placed throughout, launched a bid from upper to midstretch before backing away. THE WINGED VENUS took the overland route around each bend, had no rally. UPTOWN GIRL (BRZ) off the inside, lacked the necessary stretch response. MY DONNA JEAN pressed the issue from the two path until the furlong grounds and gave way. GYPSY PREACHER got away a beat slowly, raced three wide on the opening turn, remained well off the inside thereafter, wound up getting ;pushed into the five path coming to the five-sixteenths pole when beaten to the spot by the eventual winner, tired after entering the stretch. MISS LIBBY broke on top and established control, showed the way from the inside, rated for just over six furlongs, spurted away briefly between calls down the backstretch but had MY DONNA JEAN latched on for the run around the second turn, came under heavy pressure approaching the quarter pole and soon succumbed. AUSABLE CHASM strung out four wide on the opening turn, remained well off the rail thereafter, was through after completing a half. LILLEHAMMER failed to contend.
