Footnotes

RUN A DUBB DUBB was angled over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, got put to a prolonged drive, closed in rapidly on the loose leader, together with ROSIE MY WAY, from the midway point on the turn, was angled sharply a second time, this time back into the two path coming to the quarter pole, challenged in earnest as the entire field briefly congregated at that station, got engaged in stretch-long duel with the runner up and went on to prove best, kept to a drive. TANGLEWOOD TALE was put to some light hand urging leaving the starting gate, achieved the front in short order and was switched to a firm hold, sailed along on an open lead, extending the margin to its biggest between the first and second calls, came under assault by the winner after completing the half, yielded with about an eighth to go, fought onward but couldn't reclaim the top. ROSIE MY WAY chased from the outside, under urging for most of way around the bend, swung three wide into the stretch under strong encouragement, proved no match.
