Footnotes

LEGAL LADY stumbled badly at the start, recovered and soon settled into stride, chased the pace dispute primarily two wide on the turn, was under solid encouragement spinning four wide into the stretch, closed in readily from upper stretch to the eighth pole, forged on ahead with good courage, hitched up to the runner up in the vicinity of the sixteenth marker, wrested away the lead and edged away. CAYMAN SMILE made light contact with BEAUTIFUL ME at the start, was pulled away but right into BINSKY'S GOLD, brushed with that foe then moved inward taking the aforementioned rival along for a short ride, departed the backstretch slightly more than three wide and pressed the issue as the widest of a trio around the turn, got set down turning for home, fought her way to a slight advantage during the run through the furlong grounds, had the winner draw alongside with a sixteenth to go, was overhauled soon afterwards but crossed the wire well clear of the others for place honors. ELIZABETH'S FLAIR disputed the pace between foes to the quarter pole, arrived at that station clinging to a narrow lead, surrendered it before completing the next furlong, weakened steadily thereafter. BEAUTIFUL ME brushed with the second place finisher at the start, was in the three path chasing the ongoing pace skirmish, gave way after entering the stretch. SILVER SILENCE near the inside, argued for command with another pair parked to her outside, backed away after completing a half. BINSKY'S GOLD lightly bumped by CAYMAN SMILE a few strides, was carried inward by that opponent afterwards, settled into the pocket before reaching the end of the backstretch, tracked the pace battle, got taken in hand, in a bit tight when SILVER SILENCE drifted in slightly midpoint on the turn, lost some momentum, went on a little farther then tired more readily. PATRIOT'S JEWEL put to hand urging shortly after the start, remained well behind the competition, swung four wide into the stretch and had no response to offer.
