Footnotes

BARZINI argued to maintain command from the rail, got switched over to a drive spinning into the lane, dug in stubbornly to remain in the clear all the way down the lane. EL CORRIENTE in the pocket during the initial stages, wandered out slightly and after leaning upon the rival directly to his outside, worked his way to be halfway between the inside route and two path coming to the half mile pole, patiently tracked the front runners from there for the upcoming quarter, tipped slightly wider for the start of the stretch drive and was asked for run, altered course outward after making it all the way through the furlong grounds, mustered up some belated energy to secure second. FREUD'S DEBUT broke inward, making light contact with NELSON AVENUE as a result, assumed a prominent post and sparred with the winner from along the two path, kept up the fight before weakening in the final sixteenth. SMILING BOB within range, lacked the needed response. UNPRECEDENTED chased three wide and tired. IN TODD WE TRUST was steadied after being bumped by an incoming AWESOME WEEKEND at the start, darted over to the rail and rode it almost all the way to the end of the backstretch, tipped to be two wide at the top of the turn, entered the stretch just about as wide, failed to fire. AWESOME WEEKEND broke to the outside, initiating contact with IN TODD WE TRUST and leading the pilot of that rival to check, stayed mostly along the inside route and faltered. NELSON AVENUE was pulled away from FREUD'S DEBUT after being lightly bumped by that opponent, raced from off the inside and failed to menace. FIT FIGHTIN FELINE raced three wide on the turn and was outrun. SCOFIELD with no assistant in the stall, propped to a stop after leaving the gate, walked off the course. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start of the event before the result was declared official.
