Footnotes

AVA K. placed under a good hold soon after the start, raced three wide, contested the pace, the outermost of a trio, poked a head in front after going a half, was roused entering the stretch and shook free, fended off the runner up late under drive. MISS VALENTINE bumped with SENTIMENTAL LASS at the start, dropped back, angled inward sharply towards the inside, went about a furlong before settling back into proper stride, continued along the rail for most of the way on the turn, was taken outward late, gearing up for the stretch drive, swung five wide into upper stretch having already been asked for a response, closed with good energy down the center of the strip, but had to settle for being second best. HOT DANGER assumed a forward position after leaving the gate, made it to the rail in time for the run around the bend, argued for command, with two other opponents, remained a prominent factor until midstretch before backing away. FORTHELOVEOF ANNA fanned six wide into upper stretch, rallied mildly. YAWKEY WAY sat along the inside under a snug hold until the half mile pole, slipped into the two path at that station, was asked for a response in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, came up empty. SENTIMENTAL LASS made contact with the runner up at the break, argued between foes for the lead for a half and gave way.
