Footnotes

BELLY STAR appeared a bit keen moving up into a forward position from along the inside after the start, was taken in hand thrice during the early going, rated kindly in the pocket thereafter, found space to slip into the two path just prior to turning for home, angled out a bit more for optimal racing clearance and took off with a nice turn of speed after completing the maneuver, closed with good energy to narrow the gap, forged on ahead, drew abreast coming to the sixteenth pole, went by shortly afterwards and edged away, under intermittent urging in the final stages. SUNLIGHT SONATA patiently prompted the pacesetter from the outside, put the leader to the test coming to the quarter pole, displaced that rival to grab a clear advantage, felt the top one's presence approaching the sixteenth pole, wasn't able to stave that foe off, but held on well to procure the place. RUTHENIA left the rail midway on the turn, and rallied with good energy en route for the show. TRIUNE three wide departing the backstretch, weakened steadily after going a half. NINA FEVER sprinted clear to establish command, cut the pace from the inside, under the watchful eye of the runner up, was let out as the pressure intensified heading into the lane, and succumbed. INDIAN TALE three wide at the three-eighths pole, was asked for some run a sixteenth down the road, fanned wide into upper stretch, eventually settling to be five wide, lacked a response. UPPER EAST SIDER ducked in midpoint on the turn and trailed.
