Footnotes

I DREAMT I WAS broke outward, was pulled off the nearest opponent but not before contact could be made, sat reserved from off the inside for the opening three-quarters, was given some rein and picked up interest late on the full turn, angled into the three path in upper stretch and took off in earnest, was the widest of three arriving at the sixteenth pole on nearly even terms, quickly shook free and drew clear under good handling. MARKET PRINCESS raced from a considerable distance from off the rail throughout, spun three wide for the stretch drive, bid from between rivals for command with about a sixteenth to go, failed to keep pace with the top one but continued onward willingly to secure second. WET ONE (IRE) had a three wide journey and had a good finish down the center of the course en route for the show. FOREVER VOW kicked clear of the competition after the start, extended the advantage down the backstretch, rider atop with a snug hold on the reins, had the field start to close the gap late on the far turn, entered the stretch and was released from the rating tactics, got collared at the sixteenth pole and steadily weakened. NIGHT BRIGADE took the three path for the run around the far turn, made a run to get to within striking distance of the formerly loose leader by midstretch but could not sustain the move. LUCK IN THE CITY bumped with the winner at the start, saved ground in the early stages, rallied mildly to improve position. SILENT JOY tracked the runaway leader sitting a loose pocket, faltered. ST. LUCY off the inside, lacked the necessary stretch response. UPTOWN GIRL (BRZ) stalked afar and folded. TROPICAL JETSET underwent a three wide journey and was outrun. SOME LEGEND off to an awkward start, was never in contention. ALEX'S BUCK saved ground and tired.
