Footnotes

DESERT BLANC (GB) left the starting gate with no apparent mishap and was tucked along the rail soon after the start, pulled against the bit while being eased back, willing to concede the early advantage to HUDSON STEELE, tracked the front runners, acting more professionally down the backstretch, with the rider still applying a firm grip on the reins, was eased into the two path in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, remained on hold, bidding time for the remainder of the way on the far turn, commenced his stretch drive two wide and responded positively when given his cue, fought with vigor between rivals from the furlong marker until the sixteenth pole, continued the fight one on one with the runner up from that station to the wire once the former pacesetter backed away, grabbed the slimmest of leads and dug in with true grit to preserve it. PAPA W BODIE secured a forward position before reaching the first turn, was rated along while prompting the pacesetter from the outside, stayed within range throughout the run around the far turn, keeping something in reserve all the while, issued a challenge turning for home, was the widest of three contending for the lead from midstretch to deep stretch, battled hard with the winner to the end, but had to settle for the place. BOISTEROUS sat reserved near the rear of the pack for the opening stages, picked up interest upon entering the far turn, was under strong handling spinning into the lane, angled out a couple of paths midway in the stretch run, came home with belatedly energy to secure the show. HUDSON STEELE broke on top, raced on even terms with the eventual winner prior to grabbing a clear lead once that opponent was successfully backed off, rated kindly from along the inside, mildly urged to maintain interest, departed the backstretch under slightly more energetic urging, getting asked for bit more and more proceeding towards the quarter pole until put to a full drive by that station, reached the eighth pole still on the lead but with another pair bearing down hard, was the innermost member of a three way fight for command until the sixteenth pole, relinquished and steadily weakened. BRILLIANT SPEED raced three wide around both turns, staying within striking distance, lacked the necessary stretch response after being called upon. AL KHALI saved ground throughout and was no factor. Omayad (CHI) off the inside, departed the backstretch four wide, attempted to enter contention with a sweeping move, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths pole and tired.
