ASSURED patiently prompted the pacesetter from the three path, increased her presence during the early stages of the run around the bend, responded positively when given some rein and turned for home on nearly even terms with the runner up, got asked for run and shook free during the ensuing furlong, swerved on several paths after the last of three left handed shots in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, was given a corrective shot from the opposite side before finishing the race under light urging. MINX worked her way to the front after the start, had the pilot atop with a snug grip on the left rein but drifted into the two path before reaching the end of the backstretch, came under pressure from both sides near the top of the turn and was asked for run in response to it, arrived at the quarter pole holding the slimmest of leads, soon surrendered, held on well to secure second. PROUD VIXEN three wide entering the turn, was four wide exiting it, proved no match. CAXAMBAS PASS gave chase from the outside and had no rally. KERI BELLE stumbled at the start, tucked along the inside midway down the backstretch, cut the corner under a drive, faltered. SPUNKY PRINCESS rode the rail and was eased after going six furlongs.
