Footnotes

INFLATION HEDGE assumed a forward position soon after the start, sat well placed from the outside during the opening half, picked up interest upon reaching the turn, was placed three wide at the three-eighths pole, crept up towards the front runners, with the rider attempting to keep something in reserve all the while, got set down after turning for home, grabbed the lead and lengthened away to a comfortable advantage during the ensuing furlong, was flashed the whip right handed from the furlong marker to the sixteenth pole, as she continued to draw off decisively. SILVER SCREAMER patiently stalked the early pacesetter from well out in the course for most of the way down the backstretch, was taken over to the two path in time for the run around the second turn, made a successful bid for command approaching the quarter pole, wasn't able to stave off the top one, relinquishing readily, but continued on willingly to secure second. FROTHY MARKET off the inside, split rivals coming to the eighth pole and got up for third. LEMME saved ground until the eighth pole and was out finished. TRUFFLES contently rode the hedge for nearly three-quarters, made a sharp five wide angle into upper stretch, lacked the necessary response. MALIBU SPICE asked for run midway on the turn, swung four wide into the stretch, but could make no headway on the front runners. DIXIE SHOES off a bit awkwardly, was no menace. MISS MEXIQUE raced along the outside and failed to reach a contending position. SARASOTA EMPRESS offered little. HAUNTED MELODY cut the pace from the inside, came under pressure at the half mile pole, succumbed before completing the run around the turn, and wilted.
