Footnotes

LADY VI vied between rivals for the lead, kicked clear when asked for a response entering the stretch, left the furlong grounds, holding a sizeable advantage, became leg weary soon afterwards, held on safely to prevail. MY HONEY LAURIE bumped between horses at the start, raced between rivals around the turn, within range of a four way tussle on the front end, angled out gradually leaving the five-sixteenths pole, was forced to come five wide into the stretch to swing clear of the battling foursome, commenced to rally in earnest, gained readily on the weakening winner during the final furlong, but came up short. THERE GOES MOLLY was pulled off a rival before contact could be made at the start, remained unhurried towards the rear of the pack gained ground on the weakening top one leaving the eighth pole en route for show honors. JUDICIAL LEADER swung six wide into the stretch, lacked the needed response. MOSHE DIANE three wide, disputed the pace between three others and tired. ALL QUIET four wide, was the outermost member of a four ply battle for the front, tired steadily after completing six furlongs. TIZLING came in, bumping with MY HONEY LAURIE at the start, settled along the inside, vied for command with three other opponents until the quarter pole, gave way then was vanned off after the finish. RED TO POSITIVE took the inside route, tracking an ongoing pace dispute, came up empty.
