TRULY DIVINE raced up close along the rail, was eased back along the rail leaving the half mile pole, altered course to the outside midway on the turn, circled four wide to take the lead leaving the quarter pole, opened a comfortable advantage when roused in upper stretch and drew off to a lengthy score under a vigorous hand ride. VORTICES settled just off the early pace, ranged up three wide to challenge midway on the turn then finished willingly to best the others. ROCK CANDY MT. pressed the pace between horses, battled heads apart on the turn then weakened in upper stretch. ONE MORE THING set the pace on the rail for seven furlongs and drifted out while tiring in midstretch.
