Footnotes

FREGATA away in good order, took the early lead soon after leaving the starting gate, continued on the front unchallenged until approaching the head of the stretch, disposed of that rival by the three-sixteenths then drew off, needing only mild encouragement. FINAL STORY rode the rail until being swung to the outside at the top of the stretch, finished with good courage. STATESMAN saved ground throughout and was along for the show. GOLDEN MAN urged on the turn to keep up, lacked the needed response. BENTROVHTO patiently handled while three wide, issued a brief bid at the top of the stretch that ended a sixteenth later. WOOD WINNER was no threat. READY READ was always outrun.
