Footnotes

PRESUMPTIVE raced from off the inside, well rated during the opening half, departed the backstretch three wide but worked out a tuck into the two path shortly afterwards once SCREENPLAY was guided onto the inside route in the vicinity of the seven-sixteenths marker, ranged up with interest a furlong down the road and issued a challenge for command spinning three wide into the stretch, was engaged in a tussle with another pair for most of the way through the furlong grounds, shook off of them to reach the eighth pole with none latched on and drew off. CANTONIC rode the rail on the opening half, was tipped into the two path as the leader, that being TAWAARED tucked along the rail, midway on the backstretch, patiently stalked that opponent before picking up the pace coming to the five-sixteenths pole, entered the stretch getting asked for run, fought from between rivals from that juncture to the furlong marker, couldn't keep up with the winner but rallied willingly enough to procure the place. KINGOFTHEBLUEGRASS sluggish after coming out of the starting gate, saved ground until the end of the backstretch, was mostly three wide on the far turn, entered the stretch and displayed a good kick down the center of the course for the show. SCREENPLAY contently stalked the pacesetter from off the inside, was guided over to the rail near the top of the second bend, rode it the rest of the way to the quarter pole, rider atop with a firm grip on the reins, cut the corner into the lane, had some, but insufficient room along the rail to launch a rally, wound up in tight quarters and got checked a couple of jumps prior to the eighth pole, probably losing a length and half or so of momentum, angled outward thereafter and mustered up some belated interest. TAWAARED cleared the field before reaching the top of the backstretch, went on a little farther and was sent over to the rail, continued to sail along on an open lead being rated by the pilot, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before getting asked for run, quickly succumbed and backed away. DYNAMIC HOST off slowly, was always far back.
