Footnotes

BLIND HOPE broke well and took up residence in the two path, showed the way, rating kindly and facing only token resistance from the closest pursuers, drifted outward slightly turning for home, was put back on proper course in short order, drew off to a comfortable advantage from upper to midstretch, felt the whip lightly on the right shoulder twice during the stretch run, the only deviations from completing the final quarter handily. PUNSTER chased the winner three wide and proved no match. LINDELL A. C. knocked sideways after making contact with DOMINANT JEANNES at the start, failed to menace. THISSKYSABEAUTY bumped hard at the star, raced along outside and outfinished a pair of weak and tired ones to improve position. DOMINANT JEANNES bumped soundly twice at the break, raced between rivals on the turn and tired. CORONATION DAY tracked the pacesetter from the inside, faltered.
