Footnotes

POLITICAL JUSTICE argued for control from the rail with ROYAL INMATE, disposed of that rival midway on the turn and drew out to a comfortable advantage before departing it, settled into upper stretch and was put to a drive, was still in possession of a healthy lead with an eighth to go, saw it dwindle down steadily as the runner up closed in, came in slightly prior to the wire under right handed pressure, putting GRAMERCY, positioned at this point just off the top one's hind quarters in tight enough to initiate light contact, then finished safely in front one stride later. GRAMERCY tucked along the inside near the half mile pole, launched a prolonged rail rally to reach the furlong marker as the primary stretch threat, was continuing to cut steadily into the winner's margin when put in tight enough to brush with POLITICAL JUSTICE with one jump remaining en route to being second best. KID WANDO underwent a three wide pursuit, commenced his stretch drive four wide at the top of the lane, proved no match. DYNAMITE LONNIE D chased the disputed pace from between rivals on the turn, tired. ZEPPE the trailer for the opening half, was in the midst of a mild stretch run when carried outward, shying away from an errant PERSONAL ASSISTANT in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole. PERSONAL ASSISTANT took the inside route, angled three wide into upper stretch, appeared to be backing away when he ducked outward sharply in deep stretch after a final left handed shot, taking ZEPPE along for a short ride as a result. KELTIC FIGHTER came away awkwardly, was placed six wide at the head of the stretch, made no headway on the front runners. ROYAL INMATE gradually moved into two path down the backstretch, sparred with the winner until the three-eighths pole and gave way.
