Footnotes

ENNISKILLEN steadily advanced into contention from the outside on the turn, was placed in three path leaving the five-sixteenths pole in preparation for the stretch drive, hesitated before attempting to squeeze her way between rivals entering the stretch, went on with it with success, kicked into gear just past the furlong grounds, collared the front runners in the final seventy yards and edged away. KAFFIEND brushed the right side of the starting gate, settled along the rail soon afterwards, was taken in hand, stuck in traffic nearing the quarter pole, gained sufficient clearance a few strides later and cut the corner into the stretch, angled outward to continue her bid and rallied to take the place. LILA LOUANN got hooked up in a spirited tussle with DREAMINGOFLILLIAN soon after the start, was put to a drive to race on nearly even terms with a much more confidently handled opponent during the run around the bend, shook that one off after entering the lane, dug in with good determination before relinquishing in deep stretch. DREAMINGOFLILLIAN sparred intensely from the two path with LILA LOUANN, had the rider atop with a snug hold, in direct contrast to the frantic tactics being applied by the rider of her fellow combatant as the battle reached the turn, was given some rein in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, was shaken off approaching the eighth pole and steadily weakened thereafter. SPIRIT OF ROSE four wide at the top of the stretch, made no bids. SHOE BABE saved ground throughout. IN HER HEY DAY within range off the inside, was shuffled back, stuck in traffic when a weakening CHAKA BWANA drifted into her path at the five-sixteenths pole, was forced to remain on hold with no suitable options during the ensuing furlong, altered course outward for freedom and came home willingly. PUT ME FIRST swung five wide into the stretch, had no offering to render. CHAKA BWANA chased an ongoing speed duel three wide, tired badly.
