GIANTS PLAY away in good order, quickly established control, set easy fractions, well rated along the hedge, was given some rein as the others behind began to pick up the pace coming to the five-sixteenths pole, got called upon a furlong later, emerged from the furlong grounds still comfortably in front but with the second place finisher full of run and bearing down hard, dug in with good determination during the last eighth to deny ZAGORA the decision. ZAGORA (FR) contently rode the hedge during the initial stages, vacated the premises nearing the half mile pole, began to pick up interest early on the far turn, came three wide for the stretch drive under encouragement, closed in with good energy on the winner leaving the eighth pole, loomed boldly with seventy yards to go, but couldn't go by. HIBAAYEB (GB) patiently accompanied the pacesetter from the outside until the quarter pole, got called upon and got out finished. FREEDOM RINGS saved ground throughout. PRIZE CATCH three wide on the second turn, failed to menace. LA CLOCHE three wide around both turns, folded.
