Footnotes

EARLY RESPONSE off alertly, had no trouble establishing command, set the pace slightly off the inside under rating tactics, was placed under encouragement nearing the quarter pole, then safely maintained a comfortable advantage throughout the stretch run, despite drifting out noticeably. BEEN A PLEASURE chased the winner from the outside from the get go, proved no match but still held second. FORTYNINEGEORGEST. was outrun during the initial half, was asked for a response soon after entering the turn, made some headway during the run around the bend, swung wide into the stretch, settling into the four path, then continued on well enough to be along for the show. SMILE OF SUCCESS saved ground throughout. COMMISSIONER CHRIS near the back, came four wide into the lane, offered no response after being called upon. GOLDEN MAN raced three wide and tired.
