Footnotes

GIANT CHIEFTAN unhurried while along the outside, swung into action when asked for a bit more with a three wide move, made up good ground to reach contention by the quarter pole, had the rider lose his whip in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, continued his momentum nonetheless when put to a vigorous hand ride, overtaking the leader a couple of jumps prior to the finish line. TRUE RESURGENCE got out of the starting gate in a hurry to take the lead, sped off from the field setting the pace on an open lead, entered the furlong grounds still maintaining a comfortable advantage, continued on with good courage only to get nailed in the final two strides. BARRIER REEF reserved inside, rallied in earnest approaching the head of the stretch to loom within striking distance at the eighth pole but could advance no further. ALAAZO a factor from the outside for six furlongs, tired. DEPUTYVILLE was never in contention. SLAMBINO failed to menace.
