Footnotes

ZEKES SURPRISE ranged up three wide to join the early pace combatants at the three-eighths pole, was the outermost of three vying for command during the remainder of the run around the bend, responded positively when given her cue entering the stretch drawing away to a comfortable advantage before reaching the eighth pole, added to it leaving the furlong grounds, crossing the finish line hand urged. ASCENDED FEVER raced from off the inside, was put to encouragement from the half mile pole onward, commenced the stretch drive from the four path after ABSOLUTE PARADISE angled outward at that juncture, proved no match. CARAMEWAY was put to some urging a few strides out of the gate, sat within range of the disputed pace, lacked the necessary stretch response. ABSOLUTE PARADISE cruised up to look SEARCHINGFORAHERO in the eye arriving at the end of the backstretch, sparred on even terms for the next furlong with the top one making it a threesome at the three-eighths pole, battled onward from between rivals from there until the a short distance from the top of the lane, fell back slightly heading into the stretch, swung into the three path for another crack at the front runners, but had little left. ARIADNA saved ground until the quarter pole and was outrun. SEARCHINGFORAHERO assumed a forward position after the start and tucked along the rail, had ABSOLUTE AUTHORITY join her from the two path by the half mile pole, raced heads apart with that foe for the next eighth, came under increased pressure once the eventual winner arrived on the scene at the midway point on the turn, continued the fight up near the top of the stretch and gave way. FREUD'S MISTRESS trailed.
