Footnotes

CAIXA ELETRONICA away in good order, quickly took control, took up residence in the two path while being rated on a loosely-contested lead down the backstretch, had the runner up tip outward halfway to the half mile pole and increase his presence upon arriving at that station, was sent nearer to the rail for start of the run around the bend, although still kept at a distance away from it, maintained the advantage being briskly hand urged by the pilot, faced his stiffest test from the second place as the pair headed into the stretch and was set down in response to it, rebuffed the challenge and steadily kicked away, kept to the task at hand. POINT TAKEN contently tracked the top one from the inside during the initial stages before moving outward, gave chase from the two path on the turn, got set down at the five-sixteenths marker as a prelude to challenging in earnest a short time later, proved no match while holding on well to secure second. METAURUS was sent over to the inside route coming to the end of the backstretch, left the three-eighths pole under solid encouragement, lacked the needed response. LUBANGO three wide and being urged along on the turn, had no rally. GIANT INDIAN off to a sluggish beginning, saved ground for most of the opening three-quarters, swung four wide into the lane with no offering.
