Footnotes

SLEVIN prompted the pacesetter from the outside, was already under a drive before reaching the five-sixteenths pole, forged to the front nearing the eighth pole, and edged away, kept busy to the end. ROCKING OUT broke slowly, came three wide for the stretch run and was up for the place. MINE OVER MATTER urged cutting the corner into lane, lacked the needed response. WRITINGONTHEWALL was released from a snug hold in the vicinity of the seven-sixteenths pole, successfully fended off a much more energetically-handled opponent the rest of the way on the turn, was roused after entering the stretch, yielded soon afterwards, remained a prominent factor before weakening during the last sixteenth. XODO placed in the three path at the head of the stretch, was outrun.
