Footnotes

BOYS AT TOSCONOVA away in good order, accelerated suddenly after entering the turn, splitting rivals en route to grabbing the front, lengthened the advantage at every call, without working up a sweat, then cruised on to the finish line, a handy winner. POLICE CHATTER raced three wide and proved to be clearly no match for the top one. SETTLE FOR MEDAL lunged at the break and was along for the show. BRILLIANT SPEED off slowly, was allowed to settle into stride, swung out to the four path midway around the turn, was never a serious threat while racing greenly throughout the stretch run. BRAHMAN always inside, was put to a prolonged drive to no avail and tired. WING GLIDER was no factor. NUCKSER briefly chased the front runners and faded.
