MCKENZIE RIVER under a good hold, tracked the pacesetter from the pocket until the five-sixteenths pole, was guided outward and placed in the three path for the stretch run, closed in gradually on the leader down the lane, wrested away the lead in deep stretch and reached the wire in time to stave off the fast-closing runner up. SUGAR BEACH sluggish leaving the starting gate, dropped back to trail the pack by a considerable early margin, began to pick up interest taking the inside route around the turn, was asked for some run angling outward departing the five-sixteenths pole, swung four wide into upper stretch, swerved inward after completing the maneuver, requiring the rider to take hold, was early in her stretch run, when carried out and forced to steady by IMAGINE TOMORROW, regained her best stride and momentum in short order, closed with good energy down the center of the strip to grab the place, perhaps running out of real estate for top honors as well. PAM'S LUCKY LADY set the pace from the inside, kicked clear under encouragement entering the stretch, saw her advantage dwindle down slowly but steadily as she made her way down the stretch, yielded to top one with less than seventy yards to go, and got outfinished for second shortly thereafter. MONEY MAGNET cut the corner into the stretch and rallied mildly for the last major award. IMAGINE TOMORROW raced along the outside, was carried out a path or two and forced to steady by an errant PRAYFORSPRING nearing the eighth pole, narrowing avoiding making contact with the second place finisher, lacked the necessary stretch response. PRAYFORSPRING prompted the pacesetter from the outside for a half and gave way. MISS FANCY SHOES three wide, tired. KARAKORUM RUFFSTUF off the inside, was through after completing a half. KIKI'S SUPRISE faded off a ground-saving journey, was eased coming to the furlong marker.
