MAGGIE R took over the lead shortly after the initial split had been recorded, took up residence in the two path and showed the way being rated, had the runner up range up upon departing the backstretch and issue a challenge as the widest of three, got asked for run entering the stretch, drifted out but held safely. SILVER SILENCE made her presence felt leaving the half mile pole, was the outermost of a trio contesting for the lead for a quarter, beginning at the seven-sixteenths pole, proved no match. SILKY SAINT ducked out awkwardly at the start, relinquished the early advantage to the winner down the backstretch, stalked that rival from the three path, continued along in that role but from between opponents from the top of the turn until the five-sixteenths pole, fell back slightly, swung four wide into upper stretch, had no response left. MLLE MARGAUX underwent a ground-saving journey, cut the corner under encouragement and made up some ground during the ensuing furlong, flattened out.
