Footnotes

ALWAYS A PARTY sat patiently three wide just off a pair of well rated opponents, began to inch forward coming to the quarter pole, took off in earnest after being called upon, fought her way to the narrowest of leads at the eighth pole, drew clear then had enough of a head start to successfully fend off the late-closing runner up. STERLING SILVER tracked the front runners from the pocket under a firm hold, lacked an opportunity to slip outward throughout the run around the bend, wiggled into the two path heading for the stretch, was unable to be asked for her best, blocked behind a wall of horses in upper stretch, gradually worked her way to the outside of the course for clearance, kicked in with good energy, but had to settle for place honors. FLEET ALLAIRE rated on the lead inside, was outfinished during the final furlong. YESTERDAY reserved for nearly a half mile, came outward, displayed a quick, bold burst of speed from the four path to reach a good striking position, remained prominently placed, before flattening out the last eighth. LUCIDA well rated attending the pace from the two path, weakened leaving the furlong grounds. PERFECT BERRY unhurried along the outside, was put to a prolonged drive and tired.
