YO BLUE had control established well before departing the opening turn, set a pokey pace, well rated from the inside and facing no resistance for the opening three-quarters, arrived at the quarter pole and got called upon, dug in with determination in the late stages to fend off the runner up. LIQUIDITY TRAP sat well reserved from off the inside as the winner apparently lulled the field through a soft opening half, chose the three path as the one to take around the second turn, took off in earnest after the pacesetter coming into the lane, showed strong belated foot, fell short. SHOTINTHEFOG raced from off the inside, patiently stalked the top one from afar in the early going, moved closer to the leader nearing the end of the backstretch, patiently prompted from the two path, got asked for a response for the drive, held on well to the wire to secure the show. CASHLEIGH guided into the pocket at the half mile pole, failed to fire when called upon at the top of the lane. ANAPHYLAXIS inside early, was in the two path by the second turn, altered course to the outside nearing the eighth pole, made no headway after finishing the move. SPRINGCOURT saved ground to the quarter pole, was a couple of strides into the stretch run prior to getting angled outward ultimately settling into the six path with a furlong remaining, made no impact. FOOLISH TIGER raced three wide to the five-sixteenths marker, tipped slightly wider and attempted to rally into contention from that station, wasn't up to the task at hand. NEVADA placed along the inside route midway down the backstretch, trailed.
